

LESSON PLAN NR _____ (FM 21-5)		364th Inf 75 MM Gun
COURSE OF INSTRUCTION		LESSON TITLE
DAY AND DATE OF INSTRUCTION L & G 20 July 1958		HOURS 1600 hrs. - 1700 hrs.	PLACE Assault Fire Camp Wellfleet, Mass.
CLASS GN. Sec. A12B, C	INSTRUCTOR AND ASSISTANTS Pvt. J. G. Bill, Jr. Lt. L. Guyer		UNIFORM AND EQUIPMENT Fatigues
REFERENCES AND STUDY ASSIGNMENT ATT- 2122 Para. 28 Sub. Section 21-25 Para. 4 & 5 Sub. Section 21-28 Para. 5		TRAINING AIDS AND EQUIPMENT Blackboard and Chalk 20 M1 Rifles 20 Bayonets
OBJECTIVES To teach the preparatio prin- ciples and objectives of offensive combat.	INSTRUCTOR'S REMARKS
PRESENTATION
OUTLINE OF INSTRUCTION		TIME	METHOD OF INSTRUCTION AND TEACHING AIDS
1. Introduction		5 Min.
A. Reason 1. Our military organization must have standard ways if operating even in combat to insure the success of the mis- sion with the minimum of loss of life and material
B. Objectives 1. To heed the preparation, principles and objectives of offensive combat and how to reorganize and consolidate after the objective has been seized.
2. Explanation		30 Min.	Diagram and Blackboard
A. Explain and diagram the following attack terms. 1. Assembly area to/attack/position 2. Attack position 3. Line of departure 4. Assault position 5. Objective 6. Reorganization a. importance of speedy reorganization to counteract counter attack
B. Precedure from assembly area		15 Min.	Demonstration
C. Actual assault fire from assault position 1. Move forward rapidly causing every three or four steps, to fire a well aimed shot from the shoulder. 2. When within 30 to 35 yards from enemy fire from hip. 3. Over run objective and quickly re- organize.			